These TCS govern the contractual relations between EXTIME TRAVEL and the PARTNER.

No specific condition communicated by the PARTNER to EXTIME TRAVEL may prevail over the TCS, unless formally agreed by EXTIME TRAVEL.

Please refer to Annex 1

EXTIME TRAVEL reserves the right to cancel or change certain tours without notice if this is necessary to ensure the comfort or safety of passengers, in particular in the event of force majeure, strikes, natural disasters, cultural events, administrative decisions, or unexpected closures. Force majeure refers to any event outside the control of the affected party, of an unpredictable, irresistible, and insurmountable nature, which prevents EXTIME TRAVEL from performing all or part of its obligations under this contract.

If EXTIME TRAVEL cancels a tour, PARTNERS may request a refund of their tickets or of any packages they have booked.

Regarding Paris Seine (La Marina), being that cruises are subject to the rules of navigation, the service company reserves the right to determine whether or not rivers are navigable. Cruises may be canceled or modified at any time, beginning from the date of their booking, including on the day scheduled for departure, in accordance with the above-mentioned rules, or in the event of poor weather which may endanger the safety of the passengers on these cruises.

Within the limits provided by governing law, in case of cancellation of a cruise due to force majeure (such as floods, prohibitions on navigation by the authorities, etc.) a discount of 15% of the total amount, excluding options, will be applied.

Article 3 – CHANGE POLICY

Changes can only be made subject to availability.

Fees for changes will be applicable according to the type of product, the type of change and the time when the request is made, as shown in the following table.

Please refer to Annex 1

Article 4 – PRICES

The prices include all the services indicated in the description of each tour or service.

The prices mentioned are quoted per person and in euros unless otherwise specified.

These prices include VAT.

Article 5 – CHILDREN’S RATES

Children’s rates are valid from ages three (3) to eleven (11) à inclusive, unless otherwise specified in the descriptions of the individual products. In some cases, the age may vary. For more information, please refer to the details of the tour on the programming published at the start of each season or as specified on the website.

Children under three (3) years of age inclusive (infants) are free. However, booking is necessary in order to guarantee the availability of a child’s seat, which is mandatory according to French regulations. Infants cannot ride on their parents’ laps in minibuses. Meals are not included, and an extra charge must be paid on location.

Article 6 – OPERATIONS AND DEPARTURE TIME

- For excursions departing from our departure points:

Customers must check in at the latest 20 minutes before departure time for all tours and activities departing from our agencies.

Boarding will close 10 minutes before departure time.

- Premium excursions in private minibuses:

Customers who are staying in a private apartment must arrive in the hotel lobby or at the main entrance of the building at least 15 minutes before departure.

- For on-site departure tours:

Customers must arrive on site at least 15 minutes in advance.

- For Paris Seine (Marina) services departing from Quai de Solferino:

Customers must arrive at least 15 minutes before the boat's departure time.

We cannot under any circumstances be held responsible for delays caused by an event outside the control of our company, traffic irregularities, strikes, demonstrations, unexpectedly closed establishments, or weather warnings.

For operational management reasons, we need to know the local contact details of passengers (mobile phone number, email address and hotel location). This information must be specified at the time of booking (see Article 1).

According to our Privacy Policy, EXTIME TRAVEL undertakes not to use this information for commercial purposes.

Article 7 - DRESS CODE FOR EVENING EXCURSIONS

The PARTNER must inform the customers that elegant business casual attire is required for evening shows, including the Moulin Rouge, Lido, Crazy Horse, dinner at the Eiffel Tower and the dinner cruise. For men, jackets and dress shoes are appreciated. No shorts, jeans, sports shoes, or beach shoes such as "flip-flops."

Article 8 - CUSTOMERS WITH REDUCED MOBILITY

Only certain excursions are equipped to accommodate customers with reduced mobility. It is strongly recommended to always check at the time of booking whether the tour offers the option for customers with reduced mobility.

Customers with reduced mobility must be accompanied by an able-bodied person. Guides, escorts, and bus drivers are not authorized to assist customers with reduced mobility.

In order for us to offer the best possible service, it is essential for customers to inform EXTIME TRAVEL when booking equipment for people with reduced mobility. Otherwise, the passenger may be refused access and returned at his/her own expense.

If there is no suitable means of transport, the customer must be able to board independently, with the assistance of another person.

At the time of booking, information about the type of equipment used must be provided to the EXTIME TRAVEL booking service (please specify the dimensions of the wheelchair, whether it is electric or mechanical and if it can be folded), so that we can offer the most suitable service.

Non-folding wheelchairs will not be accepted on board.

Similarly, guide dogs will only be accepted if EXTIME TRAVEL is informed at the time of booking and if a guide dog card is presented.

Article 9 – LIABILITY

Within the limits provided by governing law, EXTIME TRAVEL cannot be held liable for failure to perform the Agreement in the event of force majeure, as defined in Article 1218 of the French Civil Code and French case law, or in the event of damage caused by a third party outside its control or due to improper or non-compliant use of the Services by the Customer, in breach of EXTIME TRAVEL's instructions.

Within the limits provided by governing law, in the event of strict liability on the part of the service providers, the compensation limits resulting from international agreements in accordance with Article L. 211-17-IV of the French Tourism Code shall apply. Failing this, and except in the case of personal injury, intentional or negligent damage, any damages shall be limited to three times the total price of the trip or the stay.

Personal items

EXTIME TRAVEL and its providers cannot be held liable for the loss or theft of personal items or luggage during transport, tours, and excursions, and we are not obliged to find or to return personal items.

All costs incurred with regard to lost or stolen personal items shall be borne by the customer.

Only small bags are allowed, in accordance with the regulations for national museums and monuments.

Customers may not leave their luggage at our agencies or in our buses during the tours.

Tours outside of French territory

For tours outside of French territory, it is the customer's responsibility to verify that he/she has the necessary documents for his/her stay (a current identity card or a passport with visa if necessary).

Discontinuance of tours

No refund will be given if the customer chooses to discontinue the route or service during the provision of service.

A customer's voluntary departure from the tour will release EXTIME TRAVEL from any obligation and from any liability for any incident that may occur after the customer's departure and will result in the customer waving any recourse against EXTIME TRAVEL.

Customer delay

Any delay of more than 10 minutes for tours departing from Paris or Versailles or more than 20 minutes for other destinations will be considered to be a discontinuation of the tour due to the customer's voluntary departure and will have the same result. In this event, EXTIME TRAVEL shall therefore be relieved of all liability and the customer must return at his/her own expense.

Drugs and alcohol

The customer undertakes to behave in a way that is not contrary to the rules of common sense and is in compliance with the current laws and regulations, in particular the bans on smoking, alcohol consumption and the transport of dangerous goods.

EXTIME TRAVEL reserves the right to disembark any passenger who violates the regulations and/or whose behavior is clearly likely to put other passengers, the driver or a third party at risk, without this passenger being able to claim compensation or reimbursement.

We would like to remind you that alcohol abuse is dangerous for your health. EXTIME TRAVEL cannot be held liable for any behavior or accidents that may occur to customers while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs, or for any damage these customers may cause.

Article 10 – INSURANCE

EXTIME TRAVEL has an insurance contract with the MMA ENTREPRISES insurance company, located at 19-21 Allée de l'Europe - 92616 Clichy Cedex. This insurance contract covers the financial consequences of the civil liability EXTIME TRAVEL may incur as a result of its activities.

EXTIME TRAVEL is a member of the Professional Association of Tourism Solidarity (APST), located at 15 Avenue Carnot - 75017 PARIS. The APST is collective guarantee association provided for in Book II of the French Tourism Code. In order to carry out the activities set out in Article L.211-1 of the French Tourism Code, EXTIME TRAVEL benefits from the commitment provided for in Article L.211-18 and Articles R.211-26 to R.211-34 of this Code, as amended by Decree no. 2005-1111 of September 2, 2015.

Article 11 – PERSONAL DATA

The provisions concerning the protection of personal data set forth in the French Data Protection Act of 6 January 1978, as amended and the European Regulation on the protection of personal data of 27 April 2016 which entered into force on 25 May 2018 ("GDPR") are found in the document attached entitled "Privacy Policy", accessible on the Website.

Article 12 – GOVERNING LAW AND COMPETENT COURTS

These TCS are governed and interpreted in accordance with French law, without taking into account conflicts of law.

Only the commercial courts of Paris shall have jurisdiction to take cognizance of any disputes or contestations relating to the interpretation or application of these TCS.

This clause applies even with referral or incident request cases or when there are multiple defendants unless EXTIME TRAVEL prefers to submit his case to any other competent jurisdiction.

In case of litigation concerning the interpretation or the content of these TCS established in different languages, or in the event of any conflict, inconsistencies, ambiguities or discrepancies between the French version and other one, the French version will prevail.

If any provision of these TCS or its application to any person or circumstance is judged null and void, this nullity will not concern the other provisions or applications of these TCS, which will remain in force, independently of the provision judged null and void. To this end, the provisions of these TCS are declared stand-alone.

In the event of cancellation of one of the clauses of these TCS, considered as non-substantive clause, EXTIME TRAVEL guarantees its replacement by an equivalent provision.

Article 13 - CONTACTS
